

Full Paper Preparation Guidelines

Authors are recommended to follow the Guidelines in preparing full paper accordingly. A single word document containing all required information should be uploaded in a single file (Word Document).

The total page for full paper is 6 pages only (including title page, abstract, text, table, figure, and references). The full paper will be compiled into the conference chapter in book with ISBN. The full paper must be submitted to secretariatberics4t@gmail.com.

The full papers that do not meet the stipulated formatting requirements, or are not adequately revised, will not necessarily be published in the chapter in book.

Language

The full paper must be submitted in English or Malay. It is the author's responsibility to pay attention to grammar and spelling.

Title

Should be concise and written in the form of lower-case with capitalization of the first word.

Author names and affiliations

Please ensure that all authors' names are correctly spelled. Authors' names should be abbreviated and arrange as last name first, followed by given names in initials. Present the authors' affiliation addresses below the names. Indicate all affiliations with number superscripts, before the author's name and in front of the appropriate address. Please provide full postal address of each affiliation.

Corresponding author

Clearly indicate who with (*) in front of the author's name and only the e-mail address of the corresponding author is allowed.

Manuscript Style

Manuscripts should be single-spaced, typed using 11 point Arial or equivalent typeface with a margin of 2.5 cm on all four sides.

The manuscript should be divided into the following sections:

a) Abstract

Author should provide essential information such as stating the purpose of the research, the principal results and the main conclusions. It should be intelligible without reference to the paper itself. Non-standard or uncommon abbreviations should be avoided, but if essential they must be defined at their first mention in the abstract itself. The abstract's word count is 250-300 words.

b) Keywords

A minimum of 3 keywords and maximum of only 6 words allowed indicating the essentials of the research work. Separate the keywords with comma.

c) Introduction

Author should provide the aim of the investigation and a brief statement of previous relevant work with references.

d) Materials and Methods / Methodology

Only new techniques need to be described in detail for reproducibility. Known or published methods must have adequate reference. Relevant modifications should be described.

e) Results

Clear and concise. Presentation of results with tables and figures may improve its clarity.

f) Discussion

Explains the significance of the results.

Note: Results and Discussion can be separated or combined.

g) Conclusion

Summary of results interpretation with suggested recommendations. The conclusion should not merely repeat points made in the preceding sections.

h) Acknowledgement

Should be kept to the absolute minimum.

Headings of the sections are to be bold and not underlined. They should appear clearly on its own. Any subsections should be given a brief heading, italicize and it should also appear clearly on its own separate line. Authors are advised to minimize subsections.

Tables, Graphs, Figures and Photographs

Tables, graphs and figures should be displayed in the full paper. Tables and figures should be numbered consecutively in accordance with their appearance in the text. Tables are captioned on top of the table body and place any table notes below the table body with proper indications to the contents in the table body (if needed). Figures are captioned at the bottom of the figures. Scanned or digital photographs should be in high resolution, minimum 300 dpi in the PC format

Footnotes

Footnotes should be kept to a minimum; in most cases, it will be possible to incorporate the information in the text. If footnotes are used, they should be numbered in the text indicated by superscript numbers and kept as brief as possible.

References

Citation in text

References should be cited in the text by the author. All references in the text must be listed at the end of the paper, with the names of authors arranged alphabetically, and titles of papers given.

Reference style

It is the authors' responsibility to provide the accurate details of the bibliographic citations. Please ensure that all references cited within the text must also be present in the reference list (and vice versa).

Citation in text:

1. Single author: the author's name (without initials) and the year of publication
2. Two authors: both authors' names and the year of publication International Food Research Conference 2017 July 26-28, 2017 Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia
3. Three or more authors: first author's name followed by 'et al.' and the year of publication. Citation may be made directly (or parenthetically). Groups of references should be listed chronologically according to the year of publication.

Examples: "as demonstrated (Son et al., 1996; Duan and Su, 2005). Son et al. (2000) have recently studied..."

Reference List

All references should be arranged alphabetically by authors' name, listing all authors, the full title of articles and journals, publisher and year. Please note that journal names are not to be abbreviated. The references in text and in the list of the manuscript should be cross-checked to ensure similarity.
